

Landfill gas management – Active collection systems

- A defined number of wells placed within the refuse
- A header system to connect the wells to the gas pumphouse system creating the suction
- A flare system providing the opportunity to combust the landfill gas in the event that the gas is not needed
- An end user of the gas

Landfill gas management – Active collection systems

